

A MEMORABLE DAY . . . For newly married Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Wesley Cope of Torrance. The happy couple were feted by Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Haynie, owners of the Queen's Kitchen, 1332 Sartori Ave., Torrance. An elaborate banquet at the Queen's Kitchen followed the color-ful ceremony held at the First Baptist Church of Torrance.

HAPPY RESTAURATEURS . . . Mr. and Mrs. Tony Trutanich are perhaps two of the most successful restaurateurs in the South Bay Area. Their new addition to Tony's restaurant—called Top O'Tony's—is a popular conversation piece among restaurateurs and gourmets alike. Steaks, seafoods, desserts, and choice libations highlight the menu. They are located on the Fisherman's Wharf in Redondo Beach.

A FAMILY RESTAURANT . . . The colorful Red Balloon is perhaps one of the most popular family restaurants in the South Bay Area. Steaks, seafoods, choice desserts and children's plates are served at moderate prices. The immaculate eatery, managed by Clara Dahlke, is located at 17544 Hawthorne Blvd., Torrance.

EXCELLENT MEXICAN CUISINE . . . Is featured at Morris and Pappa Martin's Casa Martin located at 1650 W. Redondo Beach Blvd. Their carne asada, a char-broiled top sirloin steak cooked Mexican style, is a real gourmet's delight. Fine foods with the old world flavor at economical prices are the keynote here.

10 SUCCESSFUL YEARS . . . The Fred Maddalones began their eleventh successful year at Maddalones Italian restaurant located at 316 Ave. I, Redondo Beach. The popular restaurant features a complete Italian menu in addition to a complete line of domestic and imported liquors. Phone FR 5-6301 for food to go.

..All 'Round

(Continued from Page C-14) made itself readily available to us. We need people who are interested in make-up, costuming, set design, set construction, art as well as acting. If you have theatre art talent, we here at the Showcase can and will work that talent."

Another point to consider for all you theatre goers. If you wish to attend the opening night's performance, I strongly advise calling in your reservations. Later may just be too late. From what Mr. Worthen and Mr. Petell tell me there aren't many seats left and from the looks of things it could be tight for the first Saturday night performance. The number to call for reservations and also for casting or other information is 672-5493.

pronounced an unqualified success by manager Mrs. Virginia Smith Haack. Ten delectable entrees are served daily from 4 to 6:30 p.m. on the supplementary "Early Thunderbird Dinner" menu, which is also available on Sundays from 11:30 a.m. 'til 4 p.m.

Prompted by its success, new dinner items have been added, such as barbecued ribs, but still the emphasis is on fish and seafood. The $2.50 inclusive price covers entree, Pocahontas Cart appetizers, salad, potato, buffalo rolls and beverage. At the Indian Village Restaurant, the $1.50 children's "Early Thunderbird Dinner" is especially popular with the budget-conscious family trade. Servings of the astonishingly low, early-hour dinners are as generous as they are delicious the regular menu, truly expanded, like those featured on'emplify culinary excellence.
